INDIANA UNIVERSITY
SUMMER LANGUAGE WORKSHOP
CENTRAL ASIAN LANGUAGES
http://languageworkshop.indiana.edu
The Indiana University Language Workshop offers intensive Azerbaijani, Kurdish, Kyrgyz, Pashto, Persian, Mongolian, Turkish, and Uzbek language courses, as well as rich cultural enhancement programs. These intensive programs provide beginners with a solid introduction to the languages of Central Asia. Students who complete the courses successfully will be able to communicate in day-to-day situations, to read and write effectively on familiar topics, and have a solid foundation for further study or travel.

Program features:
• 1 year of instruction in 2 months (6-8 credits)
• In-state tuition rates for all participants
• Extensive cultural programming
• Open to grads, undergrads, professionals and lifelong learners
• Substantial scholarships available for all courses
• Apply by January 2019 to ensure consideration for funding
